

CONSTITUTION

Approved July 29, 2004

MISSION STATEMENT

The Missouri Business Education Association (MBEA) serves individuals and groups involved in instruction, administration, research, and dissemination of information for/about business as they successfully accomplish the following purposes of business education:

- Prepare individuals for successful careers in government, business, and industry that will enable them to become members of a competent, globally competitive workforce.
- Prepare individuals to manage personal business affairs so that they are successful and productive citizens.
- Provide support and reinforce basic academic and skill instruction.
- Develop leadership qualities through professional growth of members in the field including cooperation with other organizations and involvement in legislative proactiveness.

ARTICLE I ORGANIZATION

Section A. Name. The name of this organization will be the Missouri Business Education Association.

Section B. Districts. The state of Missouri will be divided into districts under the direct supervision of the Executive Board: Northwest, East Central, Central, West Central, Southeast, Southwest, Northeast, Greater Kansas City Area, and St. Louis Area. The submission of the names and addresses of district officers to the association president-elect will constitute prima facie evidence of an active professional MBEA district association.

ARTICLE II OBJECTIVES and AFFILIATIONS

Section A. Objectives. The objectives of the Missouri Business Education Association are:

- To promote the professional growth and development of members in the field of business education.
- To recognize that business education, emphasizing both academic and employability competencies, is a critical component in the general education of all K-12 and postsecondary students.
- To provide opportunities for leadership at the district and state levels.
- To cooperate with other business and professional organizations at local, state, regional, and national levels.
- To enhance business education through an effective public information system.
- To foster a close association among business educators for the benefit of the student population.
- To promote awareness of the legislative process at all levels and to effect actions that enhance business education.
- To advocate business education as a viable career choice.

Section B. Affiliations. This association will work collaboratively with other organizations that share objectives parallel or complementary to those expressed in Article II. These affiliations will include, but are not limited to, Missouri Association for Career and Technical Education (Missouri ACTE), Association for Career and Technical Education (ACTE), National Business Education Association (NBEA), and North Central Business Education Association (NCBEA).

Approved July 29, 2004

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

Section A. Eligibility. Membership in the Missouri Business Education Association will be open to all business educators, business education students, retired business educators, and those individuals who cooperate in the development of business education in the state of Missouri. Upon payment of annual dues, members will be entitled to the services and publications of the association and will have the right to vote, hold office, and serve on committees if eligibility requirements are met.

Section B. Membership Year. The membership year will be July 1 to June 30; however, district reimbursement will be based on the association membership records as of March 1.

ARTICLE IV DUES

The dues will be $30 a year for current business educators and those who cooperate in the development of business education. Two dollars of each Missouri Business Education Association member's dues will be returned annually to the respective districts by the state Treasurer provided an active MBEA professional association is maintained in the district. The dues will be $10 a year for undergraduate students and retired members, with no reimbursement to districts.

ARTICLE V OFFICERS

Section A. Officers. The officers of this Association will be President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Immediate Past-President.

Section B. Eligibility. Potential officer candidates must have previous leadership experience at the district or state level of the association. Each officer must be actively engaged in business education and a current member of the Missouri Business Education Association at the time the office is assumed.

Section C. Election. The officers will be elected at the annual summer business meeting of this association to serve from the close of that business meeting until the close of the business meeting at which successors are elected. The President will appoint a nominations committee before the fall business meeting of the association, whose duty it will be to place in nomination the name of one person for each office at the annual summer business meeting of this association. Voting may be carried on in a manner designated by the President.

Subsection 1. Process. The nominations committee will seek candidates for offices as detailed in the Missouri Business Education Association Policies and Procedures Handbook. Candidates for President-Elect will be chosen from the active MBEA districts on a rotating basis in the following order: Northwest, East Central, Central, West Central, Southeast, Southwest, Northeast, Greater Kansas City Area, and St. Louis Area. Should the nominations committee be unable to present a candidate who meets the association's eligibility requirements for office from the specified district, the committee will then seek a candidate from the next district in rotation order. Candidates for the offices of Secretary and Treasurer will be chosen from the general membership regardless of MBEA district affiliation.

Subsection 2. Term of Office: The following officers shall be elected for their respective terms:

- a. The President-Elect shall be elected to serve consecutive one-year terms as President-Elect, President, and Past-President.
- b. The Secretary and Treasurer shall each be elected for three-year terms.

Section D. Vacancy. The President-Elect shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties of the President. In case of permanent vacancy in the office of President, the immediate Past President shall automatically assume the duties of the President for the remainder of the term. If a vacancy occurs during the term of office of President-Elect, Secretary, or Treasurer, the President in consultation with the Executive Board will delegate a member or members to fulfill the responsibilities of the office until the next regular election.

ARTICLE VI

NORTH CENTRAL BUSINESS EDUCATION ASSOCIATION REPRESENTATIVE

Section A. North Central Business Education Association Representative. Each state in the North Central Region (Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, Wisconsin) is allowed one representative to serve on the North Central Business Education Association Administrative Board. The North Central Business Education Association representative will be governed by the North Central Business Education Association Policies and Procedures Handbook.

Section B. Eligibility. The North Central Business Education Association representative must be actively engaged in business education and a current Missouri Business Education Association and National Business Education Association member at the time the office is assumed. The candidate should have previous leadership at the state level and will be elected from the general membership regardless of district affiliation.

Section C. Election. The North Central Business Education Association representative will serve a three-year term. A Missouri representative to the North Central Business Education Association will be elected every three years, starting July 29, 2004, and will take office July 1 of the following year. At the summer business meeting every three years (2004, 2007, 2010), the Nominations Committee will include the name of a National Business Education Association/Missouri Business Education Association member for the purpose of representing Missouri on the North Central Business Education Association Administrative Board. Voting may be conducted in a manner designated by the President.

Section D. Vacancy. If a vacancy occurs in the position of North Central Business Education Association representative, the President, in consultation with the Executive Board, will delegate a member to fulfill the responsibilities of the position until the next regular election.

ARTICLE VII

MISSOURI BUSINESS EDUCATION ASSOCIATION STUDENT REPRESENTATIVE

Section A. Missouri Business Education Association Student Representative. One postsecondary business education student will serve as a representative to the Executive Board for a period of one year from July 1 to June 30.

Section B. Eligibility. The Missouri Business Education Association Student Representative must be a junior or senior at the time of application, must be a current member of the association, and must have demonstrated leadership ability and success in scholarly activities.

Section C. Selection. Students who meet the eligibility requirements must submit the official application form on or before the stated deadline to the Chair of the Membership Committee. The Membership Committee will review and make the selection using a scoring guide. Only application materials listed in the Policies and Procedures Handbook will be accepted for consideration.
